To check the wireless settings on your Technicolor TC7200 modem, click here or type 192.168.0.1 in the website address bar (not google) to open the modem log in page. Now that you are logged into your modem, follow these steps: 1. Enter "admin" as the username and password 2. Select the "Wireless" tab 3. Change the "Channel" to 1, 6 or 11 and click "Apply". This entry is old and may contain information that is not up-to-date. I just got a Technicolor TC7200 router from my local DNA shop as part of the home broadband. I need to change some settings but cannot log in to the router. I have used both admin/admin for the username and password and also left them both blank. It just says "Given username and/or password is/are wrong". I have already set a static IP. Welcome to DNA Support Forum. Connect your PC or Laptop via cable to your router. Or instead use your wireless network. Suggestion - It is recommended for the connection to be done by using a cable attached to the technicolor TC7200 (Thomson) router. That will prevent you from losing connection in the middle of the configuration / setup process. By using a web browser of your choice and entering the IP address of your TC7200 (Thomson) router in the address bar you will load the login screen. You can find the ip address on the back of your router. Now enter the default username and password of your router and you will be granted access to its admin panel. If you do not happen to know what the username and password is then feel free to lookup some of the default ones for TC7200 (Thomson) routers by technicolor. technicolor TC7200 (Thomson) Routers Support If you experience problems logging in a TC7200 (Thomson) router, then you are probably using the wrong username or password. Do not forget to store the login details after you have reset them. Forgot Login Password? Try the hard reset function. In order to do this, press and hold the small black button usually situated at the back your router case for approximately 10 seconds. Doing so will reset your router to the factory settings. Router login page not loading? If for some reason the admin webpage fails to load, then check if the device you are using is connected to the wi-fi. You can also lookup what exact IP address has been set as default for the router. In many cases problems related to loading the login screen of the router are related to it having a different IP from the one tried to be loaded. In this case, your network is most certainly using a different IP address. If that is the case, review our IP address router list, and find the right address. If you need any help, check out our tutorial on how to find your router's IP address. If your TC7200 router is not working as it should, dropping connections or not being responsive, you should first do a reset of the router to see if the problems persist. Other scenarios where you might want to reset your router is if you've forgotten the password or misconfigured it and can't get access anymore. Your can reset your Technicolor TC7200 in the following way(s): The 30-30-30 reset There are no specific instructions for this model yet, but you can always do the 30-30-30 reset as follows: When router is powered on, press the reset button and hold for 30 seconds. (Use a paper clip or something sharp) While holding the reset button pressed, unplug the power of the router and hold the reset button for 30 seconds While still holding the reset button down, turn on the power to the unit again and hold for another 30 seconds. This process usually works for resetting any router to it's factory setting. Note: It is worth reading more about how to reset routers with the 30 30 30 reset and what the risks and considerations are when resetting your router this way, instead of just rebooting it.
